

North Panhandle Notes

nopna HOLIDAY PARTY

Tuesday, December 6 ♦ 7:00–9:00 pm
1751 Social Club (1751 Fulton Street)

Join us for our annual winter holiday get-together!
Free food • No-host bar • A chance to meet, greet,
and catch up on what's happening

The menu will consist of a sumptuous sampling of exotic, asian-style tapas (small dishes), served buffet style—A “sneak peek” at some of the specialties that will be offered when the Social Club comes under new management and re-opens as Poleng.

The buffet will include:

- Balinese sugarcane satays • Beef, pork and chicken yakitori with seasonal vegetables
- Sesame tuna tartare with tobiko wasabi • Adobo fried chicken wings
- Baked bok choy/kangkong rolls with goat cheese • Vegetarian rice paper rolls
- Vanilla scented tropical coconut tapioca

...and don't miss our next general meeting

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Cafe Neon: 801 McAllister (at Baker)

7 pm: Informal get-together • 7:30–9 pm: Meeting

Agenda includes:

- How to get a tree planted in front of your building (through Friends of the Urban Forest)
- Larkin Street Youth Group: What they are doing to keep our streets clean

As we see, the grownups had just as much fun as the kids. Everybody got into the act!

Thanks to NOPNA Board member LEELA GILL and the other parent neighbors who organized the great Children's Halloween Party on October 31! The costumes were exciting, activities and snacks outstanding. A ball was had by all!!

After the party, the parents and children went trick-or-treating all around the neighborhood.
